IN THE HIGH CORUT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE SIDE

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.3403 OF 2004
IN CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.910 OF 2004

Sanjay Bablya Bhosale and others Appellants

versus

State of Maharashtra Respondent

Milind Deshmukh, adv. for appellants

A.M.Shringarpure, AGP for State.

CORAM : D.G.DESHPANDE, J.
DATE : 17th August 2004.

PC :

1. This bail application is filed by accused 3, 4 and 6, who have been convicted by the Trial Court u/s 395 and sentenced to suffer RI for three years. They were on bail during trial. Even today they are on bail after the conviction, as stated by advocate for accused. There is no evidence of identification because no identification parade was held by the Police even though the complainant was not knowing the persons who committed the robbery. The only evidence which is available is of recovery of certain golden ornaments which do not appear to be very valuable. Therefore, considering all these facts, same bail, fresh bond.

2. Substantive sentence of the applicant is suspended pending appeal. Advocate for applicant stated that the applicant had paid fine. Application is disposed of.

(D.G.DESHPANDE, J.)